

FREXPERT CHECKLIST – FALL EDITION

- Visited Kings Landing in Sept. or Oct
- Used the Pedway or Bill Thorpe Walking Bridge as a backdrop for a fall selfie
- Noticed the anomaly within the walking bridge structure
- Visited the pumpkin patch at Moxon's Country Pumpkin or Silver Valley Farm
- Spent some time leaf peeping near Route 616 towards Keswick Ridge or Route 102 South
- Climbed Currie Mountain
- Taken photos of your kids or yourself in the "monkey trees" at Odell Park
- Hit the Fredericton Trail system for a fall bike ride
- Taken advantage of the fall bounty by visiting one of Fredericton's Farmers markets!
- Gone on a scavenger hunt AKA the Fredericton Geocaching Tour
- Taken on the #FredTapTrail
- Reached waaaaay up for the perfect, rosy, red apple at a Fredericton orchard
- Taken in live music at the Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival
- Cruised the Saint John River in a houseboat
- Went on a nighttime walk in the downtown to hear spine tingling ghost stories

