This charming riverside hotel in the heart of the city has rich history in our city, dating back to 1948 offers stunning views of Fredericton. Located just steps from the Convention Centre, Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick, Beaverbrook Art Gallery, the Playhouse, Officers' Square, boutique shops, restaurants, cafes and entertainment. Enjoy an upscale hotel featuring quality service, fine dining to pub grub and local craft beer, indoor salt water pool, hot tub and steam room, free Wi-Fi, fitness centre and business centre. Just outside the back door is the riverfront walking trail, part of Fredericton's 88 km trail network. Amenities include free high-speed Internet access, heated saltwater pool, hot tub and steam room.

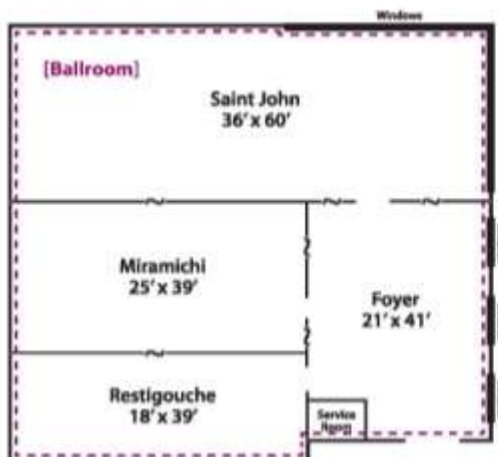

Dining/Lounge: The Terrace known for its "Farm to Table" dining concept supporting local farmers with a remarkable view of the Saint John River, and two private rooms for small groups to enjoy a more intimate fine dining setting. The James Joyce Pub features the most local craft beer in all of New Brunswick and local valley farm menu features that our regulars love. Special group tour menus are also available in a private function room.
